Re: *People v. Cameron Wesley Oliver; Case No. 17CR01583

Santa Barbara County District Attorney Joyce E. Dudley announced today that Cameron Oliver will be sentenced to a life sentence for driving under the influence resulting in the death of two individuals.

Today, Cameron Wesley Oliver entered a guilty plea to Second Degree Murder; Gross Vehicular Manslaughter while Intoxicated; and Assault with Force Likely to Cause Great Bodily Injury related to the crash that killed Leann Stauffer and Tricia Jensen, one year ago tomorrow. Both Ms. Stauffer and Ms. Jensen were passengers in a car driven by Mr. Oliver on February 6, 2017. A third passenger in the vehicle suffered minor injuries. D.A. Dudley stated, "A life sentence is the appropriate sentence in this heartbreaking case".

Mr. Oliver will return to court on April 9, 2018, in Dept. 7 of the Santa Maria Superior Court, at which time he will be sentenced to 24 years to life in State Prison.
