DESCRIPTION: An unusual two-story adobe with cantilevered balconies on the east and west sides of the house. The kitchen occupies the single story side of the house. Date of construction is unknown but may have been as early as 1815.\(^1\)

Its simple pine construction is of two large rooms, one above the other, with only a ladder to the second floor. The kitchen was once detached. \(^2\)

The adobe was the setting for the wedding night for Helen Hunt Jackson’s heroine, Ramona, written in 1854. It was also used in the novel, Johndover, whose title character lived in the adobe. The story included an attempted murder there, mimicking a sensational murder that took place in the adobe in 1881.
