Los Prietos Boys Camp and the Santa Barbara County Education Office Celebrate Continued Success as 15 Receive High School Diplomas

ON SITE NEWS MEDIA CONTACT: News media representatives planning to attend must contact Los Prietos Supervisor, Nancy Taylor at 805.331.2734 \(cell\).

WHO: 15 students graduating from Los Robles High School, a high school operated by the Santa Barbara County Education Office and located at the Los Prietos Boys Camp.

WHAT: The news media is invited to a special event co-hosted by the Probation Department's Los Prietos Boys Camp and the County Education Office's Los Robles High School. 15 students will receive their high school diplomas in a formal commencement. Included in the program will be the announcement of scholarship awards funded by the Goleta Noontime, Santa Maria Breakfast, and Solvang Breakfast Rotary Clubs as well as a special recognition by graduates to those who have supported them along their journey. The Keynote address will be delivered by William J. Cirone, Superintendent, Santa Barbara County Education Office.

WHEN: 3:00 p.m. Monday, May 4, 2009

WHERE: Santa Barbara County Education Office Auditorium, 4400 Cathedral Oaks Rd., Santa Barbara.

WHY: Third largest graduation in the history of the Los Prietos Program! Please join us as we honor these 15 young men as they walk across the stage to receive their diplomas.
