8 People Arrested During Probation Compliance Operation

Santa Barbara- On Wednesday, October 30, 2013, detectives from the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Gang Enforcement Unit, with assistance from the Santa Barbara County Probation Department conducted probation compliance operations in the unincorporated area of Santa Barbara. Teams made up of members from both law enforcement agencies, conducted several probation searches, served several violation of probation arrest warrants and conducted a series of probation compliance checks, resulting in a total of eight arrests.

The arrests included:

- 18-year-old Marco Carlos of Santa Barbara was arrested for resisting and obstructing or delaying a peace officer and for an outstanding arrest warrant. When law enforcement officers knocked at the door of his residence for a probation search, Carlos jumped out of a window and attempted to flee. He was quickly apprehended.
- 44-year-old Debra Anaya of Santa Barbara, who was wanted on an outstanding arrest warrant and who had cut off her electronic monitoring bracelet, was located at a hotel in Santa Barbara and was taken into custody. She was arrested for an outstanding warrant, possession of a controlled substance and possession of narcotics paraphernalia.
- 25-year-old Dylan Wescott of Santa Barbara was arrested for an outstanding warrant, being in possession of controlled substances and possession of narcotics paraphernalia.
- 33-year-old Tomas Torrez of Santa Barbara was also arrested for an outstanding warrant and for possession of controlled substances and possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

In addition to these arrests, three adults and one juvenile were taken into custody for outstanding arrest warrants. The names of these additional four subjects are not being released as their arrests did not involve new charges.
